

WE are strongly against your granting this petition. WE believe that if this petition is granted, it could, in the long run, refuse to provide the necessary connections for independent DSL service, and independent ISPs such as our small provider, Sonic.net. Small provider customers could suffer badly, such as the independent ISP not being able to sell DSL at all.